Become River People!

Outdoor Ventures welcomes you to come row, paddle and drift down some of our most pristine and scenic Northwest rivers.

Spending a day on the river allows you to relax from the hustle and bustle of every day life. Come see for yourself, the natural beauty and exhilaration that a river trip can offer your mind and body.

Whether you need a day of whitewater or a serene, peaceful drift, Outdoor Ventures and our friendly, professional guides will accommodate your day on the river.

Outdoor Ventures offers one day whitewater rafting and scenic drift boat trips on the McKenzie, Santiam, Willamette and Rogue Rivers. Enjoy riverside lunches in old growth forests. View wildlife from your boat such as river otter, deer, eagle & osprey.

Scenic Whitewater Rafting

Enjoy the river from an inflatable paddle raft with your favorite group of friends, co-workers or family. Become part of a team when paddling through class III rapids! Relax in the calm clear pools in between the roller coaster wave trains and technical boulder garden rapids.

Classic Wood Drift Boat Trips

Drifting down the river in a wood drift boat is an experience all in itself. These historical river worthy boats have been developed throughout the years by Northwest pioneers who had the passion for running rivers and sharing their experiences with other folks. Sit up front with your feet up and let your guide row you down the river while you relax and take in the lush scenery of the western Cascade Mountains. Drift through emerald pools and ride over roller coaster waves. You will become one of the lucky few to be able to spend a day on the river in a classic wood drift boat!
